To Our Family

¶ In presenting the Ninth Anniversary edition of Box Office Digest Annual our first thought is a sincere word of appreciation to the industry's leaders whose cooperation has made it so happy an issue.

¶ Industry leaders they truly are, as a turning of the pages that follow will clearly show. The tops in all lines of motion picture activity, they are the Digest family.

¶ This makes us grateful — and humble. And firmly decided to progress with many ideas for additional service to the industry which we have planned for Box Office Digest in the coming year.

¶ Exhibitor subscriptions have also shown such gratifying increase, phenomenal could well be the word, during the past year — despite our inhibitions because of war time paper supply difficulties — that they must be included in our word of thanks and our promise of even more extensive future service.

THE ANNUAL
Personalities

With the Fox organization only recently lighting thirty candles for its birthday party, and the lusty Republic outfit celebrating a tenth natal day with a face and form that outstrips any expectations that may have been held by those present at its christening, we of Box Office Digest may not seem so venerable as we bow in with a Ninth Anniversary offering. . . . Which is all right with us, we have no desire to be venerable, we would like to stay as young — and as up-to-the-minute by the minute—as the industry of which we are a part. . . . But a Ninth Anniversary does show that we are here to stay, doesn't it? . . . When we reach voting age, the Twenty-First Anniversary, we hope to be just as young in energy of service as we are today, and what is more important, we want all of you friends of the Ninth Anniversary to be with us around the festive board.

★ ★ ★

This new Box Office Digest Annual repeats the fascination of each succeeding issue for us of the staff. . . . In the recognition on its pages of old friends, tried and true, who have maintained their solid position in the industry since our very first Annual. . . . In the ever new thrill of greeting new names, whose accomplishments of 1944 are only a promise of what our next Annual may record for them. . . . And in the fulfillment of promise by many whose initial Annual appearance was made last year. . . . Yessir, kind reader, you can roam through the pages of these Annuals and get a quicker grasp of the important personal chronology of this industry than by any other means.

★ ★ ★

There's the fine list of old timers, consistenly up there at the top. . . . Such as Leo McCarey, Mitch Leisen, Howard Hawks and Irving Cummings. . . . And to go on: John Cromwell, Dave Butler, Michael Curtiz, John M. Stahl, Walter Lang, George Marshall, Bill Seiter, Lloyd Bacon, Raoul Walsh, Richard Wallace, Roy Del Ruth, Rowland Lee, Arthur Freed, Pan Berman, Arthur Hornblow, Henry Blanke, Joe Pasternak. . . . There are those who made their initial appearance in the intervening years, and have maintained their right to recognition as Hundred Percenters ever since the debut. . . . Among them, Bill Perlberg, Joe Mankiewicz, Dore Schary, Bruce Humberstone, Gregory Ratoff, Henry Koster, Erle Kenton, Ed Ludwig. . . . And those who gained their honor last year and repeated, with every evidence in current releases of continuing to repeat. . . . Felix Jackson, Alex Gottlieb, Ed Dmytryk, George WaGGner, among them.

Which brings us to that always specially interesting group, the newcomers. . . .
Quite a number of new faces this year, though by now their accomplishments for 1945 have been current releases or big assignments in the cutting rooms. . . . An interesting list — Arthur Schwartz, William Bacher, Paul Malvern, Edmund Hartmann, Sheridan Gibney, that team of Ernie Pagano and Michael Fessier, Frank Ryan, Vincente Minelli, that writer-producer-director triplet, Delmer Daves, George Sidney, Clifford Odets, Roy Rowland, Lewis Allen, Jean Renoir, Zoltan Korda, Ed Marin, Andre De Toth, Rene Clair, Sylvan Simon, Jacques Tourneur, Felix Feist, Herbert Biberman, etc. . . . It is nice to see consistent old-timers now in the select group, Dick Enright, Lew Seiler, Roy William Neill.

There are many interesting stories to be told at some other time about many of those newcomers. . . . That of Pagano-Fessier, for example, writers who found each other and in the finding a happy combination built for the streamlined entertainment of today. . . . There is Arthur Schwartz, who smacked himself into the front line with a single picture, "Cover Girl," for Columbia.

This Arthur Schwartz person presents quite an intriguing angle on what elements go into the making of a successful stage and screen producer. . . . In this case the making of a successful composer-producer involved quite a varied type of education. . . . Graduating from New York University, Schwartz went on to Columbia for a Master's degree, which was just a stop-over to his planned vocation, the law. . . . He got his law degree in 1924 and practiced the profession for four years. . . . Now why should a Blackstonian start writing music? . . . That's what Schwartz did, in 1928, and look at that list of shows for which he wrote the music in the succeeding years. . . . "The Little Show," "Three's A Crowd," "The Band Wagon," "Flying Colors," "Revenge With Music," "At Home Abroad," "Stars In Your Eyes." . . . By now the law was dusty, and Schwartz was doing scores for Hollywood musicals and London stage shows. . . . The work list shows such song hits as "Dancing in the Dark," "Something to Remember You By," "You and the Night and the Music," "Louisiana Hayride," "I See Your Face Before Me," "I Love Louisa," "How Sweet You Are," "They Are Either Too Young or Too Old." . . . "Cover Girl," earning honors in this edition of the Annual, was his first screen production. . . . Schwartz is new producing at Warner Brothers, with a biggie in the works, "Night and Day," the Cary Grant special which is billed as "the life and music of Cole Porter."

Nor should we forget our player friends, both new and old. . . . It can well warm the cockles of an editor's heart to see nine-year friends such as Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Jack Benny, Fred Astaire, Gary Cooper, George Raft, Don Ameche, Randy Scott, John Wayne, Pat O'Brien, Brian Donlevy, Robert Young, Edward G. Robinson, Dick Powell, Jon Hall, Jimmy Durante. . . . A pleasant reunion with some friends of more recent years, James Craig, Dennis Morgan, Abbott and Costello, J. Carroll Naish, Cecil Kelloway. . . . And hearty welcomes to new guests about the festive board, stars who established their spot in 1944's pictures, such as Paul Henreid, Eddie Bracken, Gregory Peck, Zachary Scott, Michael O'Shea, Robert Cummings, Dick Haymes.

★ ★ ★

The girls, bless 'em, represented in these pages give us the same warming feeling as the males. Right up there at the top are such as Claudette Colbert, Betty Davis, Irene Dunne, Barbara Stanwyck, first issue friends. . . . Long established in the DIGEST family are Greer Garson, Judy Garland, Deanna Durbin, Ida Lupino, Lana Turner, Betty Grable, Merle Oberon, Carmen Miranda, Dorothy Lamour. . . . And we can point to up-and-coming names, too. . . . June Haver, Anne Baxter, Linda Darnell, Dinah Shore, Louise Allbritton, Susan Hayward, Joan Leslie.

Quite a Blue Ribbon list of the people who mean the American box office, isn't it? . . . From producers, to directors, to players, — take your pick for any major company you plan to start and you can't go wrong.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The financial statements published above are for the fiscal year from January 1st to December 31st if such reports were published: if not, they are for the nearest similar period. HUTTON AND COMPANY, members of the New York Stock Exchange.

Studios Have Second Best Net Profit in 1944

The combined earnings of the major producing-distributing companies for the past year ran slightly above the $62,000,000 mark, which, incidentally, is about $2,000,000 less profit than all the studios made the previous year. Due to the fact that theatre admissions are the highest they have ever been and the attendance is the heaviest in theatrical history, the gross business of all picture companies hit a new high the past year; but due to such high corporation tax on account of the war, the net earnings were only $62,000,000, whereas in peacetime the earnings probably would have been closer to $90,000,000.

Of course, another very important factor is the very high negative costs on all types of pictures. The low program budget pictures of some of the independents that previously ran from $40,000 to $60,000 are now running closer to $100,000 to produce. Some of the so-called super-pictures or road-show attractions that in the past ran $1,000,000 to produce are now running a good half million over that figure, and in the past year there were quite a few productions that cost from 2,000,000 to 3,000,000.

Furthermore, most of the major producing companies financial reports also mention the fact that their distribution costs were much higher with a slight increase in theatre operations. This situation is only natural under war time conditions and taxes will continue to be high until the defeat of Japan. The picture companies expect a big increase in foreign market returns shortly, and that may increase the net earnings. Still another important factor is that the studios have almost a $50,000,000 backlog of unreleased pictures.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT
WASHINGTON

July 1, 1945

Box Office Digest
1019 S. Hauser Boulevard
Los Angeles 35, California

The cooperation of the motion picture trade press in the Seventh War Loan campaign was outstanding. The results achieved by the film industry — exhibitors, distributors, producers and the men and women connected with those various branches — was possible because of the enthusiasm and constant reporting done by the film papers. The contribution of space was generous.

On behalf of the Treasury Department and War Finance Division, I want to thank you once again for your contribution to another War Loan Drive.

Sincerely,

TED R. GAMBLE
National Director

¶ With the numerous demands on our patriotism and our good will — members of the Motion Picture Industry should never forget the Community Chest.

¶ Its appeal is made only once a year — but its job is an all year one. And it covers a multitude of agencies that could well swamp our generous picture folk.
